

SPANISH WAR COMMANDER ISSUES GENERAL ORDER

Captain Le Masurier Appoints to Post in Organization Full List of Officers for Coming Year.

Captain Joseph Le Masurier, commander of the Department of Virginia, United Spanish War Veterans, recently issued a general order to the posts of the organization in which the full list of officers for the coming year was announced.

The order follows:
General Order No. 1.
1. The election of the following officers at the eighth annual department encampment is announced:
Department commander, Captain Joseph Le Masurier, Richmond.
Senior vice-department commander, Captain Maurice B. Rowe, Fredericksburg.
Junior vice-department commander, Captain Charles P. Heineman, Ocean View.
Department judge-advocate, Captain C. C. Berkeley, Newport News.
Department inspector, Thomas M. Deade, Danville.
Department chaplain, F. P. Talmadge, Portsmouth.
Department marshal, John J. Allen, Norfolk.

2. The following comrades are hereby appointed to the offices set opposite their respective names, and will hold and discharge duties of such offices until their successors are qualified:
Lieutenant Luther T. Matthews, department adjutant, Richmond.
Charles L. Hofmann, assistant department adjutant, Richmond.
Lieutenant E. Bernard Loving, department quartermaster, Richmond.
Dr. C. Howard Lewis, department surgeon, Richmond.
Lieutenant William D. Richardson, department historian, Richmond.
Wade Hampton Payne, department public instructor, Norfolk.
Captain James N. Barney, department chief of staff, Fredericksburg.
Department At-Large-Camp.
George C. Fitzhugh, Richmond; Major Walter H. Church, Norfolk; J. J. Thompson, Norfolk; A. D. Bowen, Suffolk; W. R. Engleby, Roanoke; C. N. Markham, Portsmouth; Lieutenant A. G. Billingsley, Fredericksburg; Leslie M. Correll, Danville; J. M. Griffith, Hampton; E. L. Lightfoot, Newport News.

3. The above named, with the following past department commanders, constitute the officers of the Department of Virginia, United Spanish War Veterans for the present term, viz:
Past Department Commander, Captain George N. Smith, Richmond; Past Department Commander, Captain R. Gordon Simmons, Roanoke; Past Department Commander, H. Johnson White, Norfolk; Past Department Commander, Captain R. Frank Taylor, Roanoke. They will be obeyed accordingly.

4. To the retiring officers of the department, the department commander returns his sincere thanks for their unselfish loyalty and zeal, the efficient discharge of their duties during the past year. It is his earnest hope that they, as well as all other members, will contribute their best efforts toward making this year's administration as progressive and, if possible, more gratifying than the past.

JOSEPH LE MASURIER, Department Commander.

By Charles L. Hofmann, assistant department adjutant.
